NUMBER 42

WITH STARS AND BARS ABOUT HIM.

Mortal Remains of Judge M. C. Saufley Are Laid to Final Rest.

With the stars and bars of the South land enfolded about him, a mass of flowers piled around his bier and surrounded by friends and loved ones who came from far and near, all that was mortal of Judge M. C. Saufley was laid to final rest in the family lot in Buffalo Cemetery Sunday afternoon.

It is probable that no larger concourse of people ever assembled on any similar occasion in this part of Kentucky, than gathered Sunday to pay the last tribute of esteem to the memory of the departed jurist. Practically the entire bars from Boyle, Garrard and Mercer were present as well as Lincoln, and many from other sections of the State, and other State. The old confederate comrades of the deceased turned out in a body and acted as escort of honor.

The family home on Danville ave., was unable to accommodate the throng which congregated there for the services by Elder Joseph Ballou a long time friend of Judge Saufley, so that it swept over the spacious lawn where men stood with bowed heads while the brief service was said.

The procession to Buffalo cemetery was over a mile in length and not all could gather closer enough to hear the final eulogy to the dead said at the grave by Dr. E. M. Green, of Danville, himself an ex-Confederate and close friend of the deceased.—Stanford Journal.

Death of a Native Resident.

Mrs. Sophia Martin, who was a daughter of Judge Eli Wheat, who died near this place many years ago, crossed the dark River of Death one day last week. The end came at the home of one of her daughters, in Louisville. She is survived by three daughters and one son. Her husband "Uncle Bob" Martin, died at Central City last year. The deceased was married to her husband, in Columbia, in the dwelling in which Mr. J. H. Judd now resides, in 1863 or 1864, going to Campbellsburg, the home of Mr. Martin, to reside. They lived in Campbellsburg continuously until about seventeen years ago.

The Tompkinsville News says that Judge James C. Carter will begin a new order of things in the manner of conducting his courts hereafter. The clerk will be ordered to docket misdemeanors for the first week and all the criminal cases for the second week of the term. This will expedite business to a very great extent and save much time and worry for witnesses. The lying over of witnesses from day to day has always been a very heavy expense on the state as well as all litigants in the courts. Under the order of business adopted by Judge Carter it will be possible in most cases that witnesses will have to attend only one day. This will be a very material improvement over the antiquated plan of running our courts and will be appreciated by those who may be connected with the courts in any way.

Course in Agriculture.

The Western Kentucky State Normal School offers a practical course of study in Elementary Agriculture, Demonstration and actual work done on school farm. Teachers will have an opportunity to prepare for teaching the subject. Great opportunities offered young men who expect to make farming a life work. Course begins Sept. 6, 1910. Write for information. Address H. H. Cherry, President, Bowling Green, Ky. 41-2t

Mr. W. B. Penick, who for many years was cashier of the Greensburg Deposit Bank, has tendered his resignation, and W. L. Coakley, who has long been connected with the institution elected in his stead. Under Mr. Penick's administration the bank has for a number of years paid a dividend of 24 per cent. The retiring cashier is a fine business man who from boyhood has enjoyed the confidence of the people of Green county. His successor is an elegant gentleman, and there is no doubt but he will manage the affairs of the institution in a satisfactory manner. The board of directors are financiers.

I have an extra good buggy horse for sale. Also a nice lot of household and kitchen furniture. Fred Myers, Columbia, Ky.

Persons who at one time made their home in Adair county, but who are now living elsewhere, but are here attending the Fair, are requested to see a News representative and subscribe for the paper, in order to keep in touch with what is going on in their old county.

Graded School Will Open.

The Columbia Graded School will begin its second year's work on Monday September 5th. The School Board believes that a competent corps of teachers has been employed. And that this year will prove even more successful than last year. Every boy and girl of Columbia should begin on the first day and remain in school till the close. Every department of the school is free to the boys and girls of Columbia who are in school age.

The county High School will be taught in connection with the high school work of the graded school. The High School department is free for all students of Adair county who are in school age. But if you live outside the graded school district, you must have a common school diploma, or make special arrangements in regard to your qualifications with your county Superintendent, Miss Hindman, before entering.

No new classes will be organized after the first of the school year. It will therefore be necessary for you to begin in September and remain in school the nine months in order to get credit for the high school work. It would be nearly impossible for one who has had no high school work, to enter at the middle of the school year, and do the required work of a high school year. Be present on the first day and get an even start, then be present every day, and keep even or ahead. X

For Rent.

One house with four rooms, with good garden, good spring with 1/2 acre lot; barn, chicken house, smoke house. House 16x20 used as a grocery store; one blacksmith shop. Nearly all kinds of fruit in garden, lot and yard; good opening for a country grocery store, and blacksmith shop. Nice place to live close to a church and school, lying on the Stanford road joining and including a part of the Rippette Springs. Will give possession at any time. Price for rent very reasonable. Terms cash, or good papers. For further information apply to Dud Lawless, Denmark, Ky.

A Pleasant Visit.

Mrs. Mollie Jones, of Exie, Ky., accompanied her daughter, Miss Maggie Pyle, on her return trip to her home in Danville, Ill.

They left Greensburg June 17, and after making a visit with relatives in Campbellsburg and stopping awhile in Louisville, they arrived in the beautiful little city of Danville, June 23. Mrs. Jones' other daughter, Mrs. Mable Ogle, whom she went to visit, met them at the depot and carried them to her home. Mrs. Jones was glad to find her daughter well and prosperous; and was highly delighted with the rich soil, fine crops and beautiful level plains of the Prairie state.

After eight weeks stay with her daughters she returned to Greensburg Aug. 1st, and visited friends and relatives at that place a few days before returning home. J.

The School of Music.

Persons desiring a full course in Vocal and Instrumental or Public School music, will enjoy unexcelled opportunities in the Western Normal. Write for special information. Address H. H. Cherry, Bowling Green, Ky. 41-2t

There was a shooting and cutting scrape at Mt. Vernon colored Church, three miles to the left of Cane Valley, last Sunday week. Our informant states that two negroes, named Anderson, were shot and a darky named Vaughan was badly stabbed. It is said that a crap yard is but a short distance from the Church, and that a game was in progress when the fight came up.

People have commenced to arrive for the Fair and by to-morrow night, this is Monday, the town will be well-filled. There is a great deal of stock at the grounds and more will come in to-day and tomorrow.

We have 291 acres of timbered land, white oak, poplar and hickory. The white oak has been estimated at 300,000 feet. Will sell the timber and land together or will sell the timber and keep the land. This is one of the best bodies of timber in Adair county. Address J. F. Pendleton or J. A. Diddle, Gradyville, Ky. 41-2t

Advertisements are now being distributed for the big lot sale in Columbia Wednesday, October 19. Persons who want to locate in Columbia will be given an opportunity to buy a lot for a small sum of money.

The Somerset Fair, which promises to be a good one, will commence August 30th and continue four days. Some of the best horses in the State will be on exhibition.

Married in Georgia.

On Sunday, the 14th inst., Miss Pinkie Jeffries, of this county, a daughter of the late Cook Jeffries, and a cousin of the late Cook Jeffries, was married to Mr. Grady Davis, a prominent Southern farmer. The ceremony was performed at Dublin, Ga., and the great grandfather of the groom, Rev. John Wilkes, officiated. The bride is a fine young woman, who has many friends and relatives in Adair county. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will reside at Rock Ledge, Ga. The couple met while Miss Jeffries was teaching in the South.

Notice.

Sarah J. Webb et al, Pl'ff vs Romulus B. Foley, Deft.

To satisfy execution No. 1844, which issued from the office of the clerk of the Adair Circuit Court on the 21st day of July 1910, in favor of the Master Commissioner of the Adair Circuit Court and against Romulus B. Foley for the sum of ($305.42) Three hundred five and 42 dollars, with 6 per cent annum interest from the 29th, day of September 1909, until paid; Also sixty cents the cost of this action.

I will on Monday the 5th day of September, 1910, the same being the first day of a regular term of the Adair County Court, at 1 o'clock p. m., or thereabout, offer for sale to the highest bidder on a credit of three months, the following described property or a sufficiency thereof to satisfy said debt, interest and cost.

One undivided ninth of two tracts of land in Adair County, Kentucky, on the waters of green river, as the property of Romulus B. Foley. The first tract contains 68 1/2 acres and the second tract contains 40 acres and lies adjoining the first named tract, and are the same two tracts of land conveyed to G. A. C. Foley by S. S. Williams and wife by deed bearing date of February 23rd., 1905, and now of record in the Adair County Clerk's Office, in deed book 21, page 71, and the same land on which G. A. C. Foley lived at the time of his death, and to said deed reference is made for more particular description. This levy is made and sale will be made subject to a homestead therein owned by Sarah J. Webb as widow of G. A. C. Foley. Purchaser will be required to execute bond with good security and bearing interest from date until paid. This July, 1910. A. D. Patteson, 41-3t S. A. C.

A lady, who is visiting in Columbia, called at the News office a few days ago, and during the run of a conversation she said: "I have traveled considerable in my life, and I do not know of a handsomer inland town anywhere than Columbia. However, there is one very important matter that I notice is being neglected. The sanitary condition of the square, pavements and back streets are not kept up to the standard of a well regulated and thriving town. There should be a law prohibiting expectorating upon the pavements, spit-bred disease and the old paper and rubbish should be removed. These are the only things lacking to make Columbia a most desirable place in which to live. In my town if a man were to expectorate upon a pavement he would be arrested and made to pay a fine instantly." The above quotation is given for the consideration of the municipal board.

Secure an Education.

The State Normal School at Bowling Green, Ky., offers an excellent opportunity to young people desiring an education. The Fall Session opens September 6, 1910. Write for information. 41-2t

It is a little amusing to read the fresh(?) news items that often appear in the Louisville Post. For instance, a small robbery or a small fire occurs in Adair county, which is duly mentioned by The Adair County News at the time it occurs, requiring four or five lines to tell all the facts. In about ten days after said mention has been made in the home paper The Louisville Post will contain a special, sent from Glasgow, telling about the occurrence, the writer drawing largely upon his imagination. It is awfully fresh(?) news and the Post is to be congratulated upon having such a watchful contributor.

Go to the Fair grounds and hear the delightful music rendered by Werhley's band. Up-to-date music is being rendered.

Dr. P. J. Tobin, of Glasgow, a noted veterinary surgeon, a graduate of the Indiana Veterinary College, will be at the Fair grounds during the week, ready to do any kind of work in the profession. If you should need his services, call him.

The Dixie Vaudeville Co.

This very attractive troupe of artists gave two entertainments in Columbia, last Friday and Saturday evenings. The court auditorium was well filled upon both occasions, every body expressing themselves as being well pleased with the program. There are seven or eight people in the aggregation, ladies and gentlemen, who were brought up in the theatrical business and understand perfectly what pleases the public. The overtures rendered on a piano were skillfully executed and delightfully melodious, the singing of the little daughter of the manager, winning, the comedy acts good, and the imitating of a band by one of the performers, perfect. It is a moral show, one worth going to see.

Every Little Helps.

That is why a man gets excited and "goes up" on his property when you ask him to price it. He will list it cheaper with an agent when there is no immediate prospect of a sale. Moral—Buy through the Real Estate man. He don't prize you. 42-2t

Tobacco Growers Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the tobacco growers of Adair county at the court-house next Monday, September 5th. Mr. J. Tandy Ellis and Mr. J. E. Johnson will address the meeting, at which time the growers of Adair county will be clearly advised as to the tobacco situation. Every body is invited, the large grower and the small grower, ladies, merchants and bankers.

The Best Hour of Life.

Is when you do some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. R. Pitt, of Rocky Mt., N. C. when he was suffering intensely, as he says, "from the worst cold I ever had, I then proved to my great satisfaction, what a wonderful Cold and Cough cure Dr. King's New Discovery is. For, after taking one bottle, I was entirely cured. You can't say anything too good of a medicine like that." Its the surest and best remedy for diseased lungs, Hemorrhages, LaGrippe, Asthma, Hay Fever—any throat or Lung Trouble. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Paul Drug Co.

Last Wednesday evening Miss Mable Atkins entertained the following young people in honor of Mr. Bryan Baker, of Pensacola, Fla., who is spending a week or two in Columbia: Misses Edna Lewis, Vic Hughes, Martha Hancock, Mary Cartwright, Mable Jasper, Alice Walker, Jennie McFarland, Bess Rowe, Ina Hulse, Myrtle Myers and Katie Murrell. Messrs. Alex. Chevington, Tom Judd, Leslie Chapman, James Garnett, Tim Cravens, George Montgomery, Ray Montgomery, Romie Judd and Fred Hill. A delightful repast was served and the occasion very much enjoyed.

Mr. N. H. W. Aaron, the well-known attorney, has removed from Monticello to Indianapolis, Ind., where he will practice his profession. Some time ago we made the prediction that Mr. Aaron would eventually locate in Columbia. We are still of that opinion. In fact, he is en route now—only taking a round about way to get here.

Any one desiring first class accommodations at reasonable rates during State Fair, Races, horse show or any time when visiting the city, call to see.

Mrs. Rose D. Starks, 732 South First St., Louisville, Ky.

Bradley Waggener and Charley Boone Miller, two colored boys about town, were arrested Saturday and lodged in jail, charged with stealing from Young Bros., Store.

"All out for the Fair grounds."

There are only three shows besides the Fair entertaining in Columbia this week.

Mr. Geo. T. Flowers, Jr.'s residence, on Greensburg Street will soon be completed.

H. H. Collins, of Campbellsburg, bought G. A. Bradshaw, 111 sheep at $3.40 per hundred.

Every Fair bootleggers come in for the purpose of peddling liquor. The officers should keep a close watch and arrest every man who they find violating the law.

Only eight days from the date of this paper until the schools open. All the teachers will arrive in the next few days.

The hotels will be crowded this week, and if any one should fail to secure a room, there are several families in town who will take boarders.

Quarterly Conference.

The Fourth Quarterly meeting for the Columbia and Tabor charge, of the Methodist church will be held at Tabor next Saturday and Sunday. The P. E. Bro. Hulse will preach at 11 o'clock each morning and the business session will be held Saturday afternoon. Bro. Hulse will preach Sunday night at the Methodist church in Columbia. This is the last quarterly Conference for the year and a very important one, as all the officers for both churches are then elected for the ensuing year.

Mr. Millard Workman, who lives near Gresham, Green county, met with a very serious accident recently which may terminate in his death. He was hauling hay and in some way was thrown from his wagon, striking the ground with terrific force. His whole body was paralyzed and he has been in a critical condition since. Mr. Workman is a brother of Mrs. Henry Farleigh, of this place.

Rev. B. M. Currie received sad news from his wife last Friday, who had reached Cloverport, en route to Hopkins county. Mr. and Mrs. Currie lived in Cloverport four years before coming to Columbia, and upon reaching that place their old family physician was called to examine Mrs. Currie's little daughter's arm which got hurt in this place several months ago and which continued to give the child much pain. The doctor made the examination, stating that the arm was badly broken and that he doubted if he could do anything with it now. Mr. Currie thinks the limb will have to be broken and then set.

The young ladies of the city have been enjoying several delightful picnics during the last week. Thursday afternoon about twenty-five met near Miss Tillie Trabue's spring, spread lunch and enjoyed several hours together, after which they drove home in the moonlight.

The Annual Conference will convene at Russellville next month, at which time the preachers are all placed for another year. As we never know what will happen, next Sunday night may be the last opportunity for the people here to hear Bro. Hulse.

Half the land suits result from buying land from Tom, Dick and Harry, without having the Real Estate Man to look up the title and get up deeds in legal form. Buy from the Agent and know what you are getting. 42-2t.

We would be very glad to secure a live correspondent at Roley, on Casey Creek. The country in that locality is thickly settled and to us it seems that a correspondent would have but little trouble in getting up a newsy letter each week.

Fogies are people who stand in their own light. Don't be one, but buy and sell your property through the Real Estate man. He is a lawyer who can examine titles and get up deeds in legal form. That beats law suits. 42-2t.

Messrs. A. C. Frodge, Finis Strange and Mr. J. R. Garnett were made Royal Arch Masons in Columbia Chapter, No. 7, last Thursday night. After the work a very enjoyable luncheon was spread.

Mr. H. A. Walker reports a splendid Fair at Burkesville. The attendance was good and there was a fine show of stock. A great deal of the stock shown at Burkesville, is now at the Columbia Fair Grounds.

Mr. Scott Montgomery has greatly improved the appearance of his residence. A new room has been built and verandas added. Mr. W. T. McFarland and Mr. H. C. Feese were the contractors.

Judge M. C. Saufley, who died at Stanford last week, and who was a gallant officer in the Confederate army, was buried with the stars and bars wrapped around him.

Mr. Melvin White, who writes from Lattimore, N. C., takes an occasion to pay Mr. James Garnett, who is a candidate for Attorney General, a compliment.

In all up-to-date counties real estate transfers are made through Agents. The people of Adair county are catching on. 42-2t.

A brass band will be employed to furnish the music all day while the big lot sale is in progress in this town, Wednesday, October 19.

This week people of Adair, Casey, Russell, Green, Cumberland, Metcalfe and Wayne are mingling at the Fair and having a general good time.
